PSC TO HOST TELECOMMUNICATIONS CONFERENCE ON NOVEMBER 18

The Montana Public Service Commission will host a conference Wednesday, November 18, to provide a forum for telecommunications industry members, consumers and the Montana Consumer Counsel to discuss issues that are likely to come before the PSC in the next two years.

The one-day conference is free of charge and will be held at the PSC's Bollinger Room, 1701 Prospect Avenue, in Helena. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. with the conference starting at 9 a.m.

The conference agenda includes five major topics, with discussion on each topic to be led by a designated participant:

- Revenue requirement issues, led by an AT&T representative.
- Universal service, led by a representative of Montana Independent Telecommunications Systems.
- Wholesale rate issues, led by a US West Communications representative.
- PSC rules issues, led by a representative of the Montana Telecommunications Association.
- Legislation, led by a Ronan Telephone Company representative.
